He Believes In a Few Small School Buildings.

BETTER THAN LARGE ADDITIONS

The Smead System Should Be Torn Out and Replaced by Steam Heat or Some Other Well Tested Plan—Other Improvements Sadly Needed.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW.—I was pleased to note the article in your columns last Friday on new school buildings. I hope to see many more expressions from our citizens. As chairman of the committee appointed by the board to report on this matter I have been giving it careful personal attention. Some have expressed the opinion that an addition of two rooms to Grant street and East End each would best serve present demands. I have taken measurements and made sketches and estimates, and am convinced that to follow that course would be unwise for the following reasons: First, such additions would destroy the symmetry and architectural design of both buildings. Second, such additions would cost more than the next board would have available for such purposes, and the law forbids borrowing money on notes, and the board has just recently got consent from the patient taxpayers to bond the district for $18,000 to square up old scores and make other improvements, and I could not ask them so soon to issue more bonds. Third, the law requires that school boards must consider convenience and economy in locating new buildings.

I think it was a blunder that the East End building was located where it is. Close to the hill on the north with a narrow swampy strip of land on the west, there can be no growth near to it. The town is stretching east, and there is where new factories will locate and new homes be built. Hence I regard it as very unwise to spend more money where the people cannot locate. My personal judgment is that a two room building, located centrally in the East End, and a similar one located somewhere in Huston, Bradshaw or Thompson additions would be the most economical and valuable accommodations that could be provided. The present board will close their term with finances in good shape. The bond issue of $18,000 provided for improvement beyond the old inherited debt of $15,000, and by good management and economy the necessary room can be provided without further burdening our citizens. The board of education will also be obliged to spend some funds this coming year in painting and papering all the buildings, as this has been neglected too long already. Tin work and wood exposed without attention is the worst of economy. On this line I will call attention to another matter which must be met in the no distant future. As the committee in charge of the Central building, I have given close attention to the heating and ventilating, and it is unhealthy for pupils and teachers, and in my judgment cannot be made a success, for the simple reason that nature's laws do not readily adjust themselves to man's mistakes. Draft stacks built of sufficient capacity for a given number of furnaces will not readily afford vent for 40 per cent additional furnaces; and furnaces so located as to be without a supply of air can't help but balk and burn out the castings. To admit heated air at the top of a room is not scientific, especially when the space between the ceilings and floors is filled with cold air currents caused by openings around the joists and which extend into the hollow walls and have not been closed. My judgment is that it would be economy to tear out the whole system, and replace it with hot water heaters. Another item of expense that will have to be met before long is a new cement floor or brick pavement in the main passageway in the basement. It is in such bad condition now the janitor has had to work to wheel coal over it, and the children carry up the dust and broken cement to the rooms above.

These are questions I think the public ought to be informed upon so that the board may know the wishes of their constituents. Let there be a free expression of opinion. The time has surely come for a more economical administration of public affairs. If our citizens will take more interest and compel their servants to obey our laws, there will be smooth sailing. At a future time I will suggest some reforms that seem to be possible. J. C. McClain.

SIGNED THE SCALE.

Five Merchant Tailors Will Pay the Price.

Members of the tailors' union today submitted the scale to the merchant tailors of the city, and met with encouragement. The proprietors of five of the best concerns in the city signed the agreement, and will pay the union price. Two, when approached, refused to affix their names to the document. It is believed that another establishment will be added before night. The tailors feel much gratified at the success which attended their efforts.

A GENERAL HOSPITAL.

A Strong Plea From an Earnest Advocate.

Could the good people of East Liverpool be aroused to the fact what the value of a general hospital would be to this thriving industrial city, they would not hesitate long to take on a true philanthropic spirit and subscribe liberally for the erection of such an institution. I know of no other city that is in greater need of such a refuge for the sick and afflicted as East Liverpool. Here is an opportunity for those who have plenty, and are actuated with a desire to do good, to come forward and attest their zeal and means in this direction. The importance of this step has suggested itself to my mind more fully from day to day through incidents to which I have been an eye witness. Perhaps it is not generally known that the kind ladies of the Woman's Christian Temperance union have from time to time cared for and sheltered the sick and afflicted in consequence of the lack of a better place, until the Woman's Christian Temperance Union home has in a measure become an embryo hospital. Let all leading citizens rouse themselves to action, then the spirit will be caught up by the rest of the community, who will be only too glad to contribute their mite for the erection and maintenance of such a noble institution, thus laying the basis of this branch of true, practical Christianity. Very respectfully, MARY AMBLER HALL.

ONLY A LITTLE MOUSE.

But It Caused a Great Commotion at Central Building.

It was only an innocent little mouse, but it might have been a lion or a tarantula if one is to count the result in consternation. It was brought to school in the pocket of a small boy, and created so much excitement that the teacher called him to her desk, intending to imprison the poor little thing until Janitor Albright could be called to dispose of it. Now the mouse was a pet, and knew its master well. By some unexplainable movement the boy released the little thing, and when the teacher, sadly frightened, but making a show of authority, demanded it, the mouse could not be found. At that moment some one saw it scamper across the floor and gave the alarm. Instantly every girl was on her seat. Her skirts were drawn close about her, and shrieks of every tone and degree of intensity filled the room. The actions of the teacher are not recorded, but it is said that she, too, quickly sought the most convenient elevation, and remained there until the mouse, frightened almost out of its wits, escaped from the room.

HOUSE CLEANING.

The Fire Station Boys Are In the Midst of It.

The fire station will be the scene of much activity this week. The boys are at work cleaning the building, and when they are through, Chief Morley states, the station will be second to none in the county. The sleeping apartment of the building will receive much attention, the neat iron beds will be repainted white, the walls receive a new dress of paper, and new Brussels carpet will be placed upon the floor. The trap doors around the sliding pole will be padded. The downstairs will receive a new coat of paint, which will place the building in first class condition.

LEARNING TO READ.

Mother Warrick Begins When She Is an Old Woman.

One of the best known inmates of the young woman's home in Market street is Mother Warrick, who for a long time has been connected with the institution. Although she has by eight years passed the allotted three score years and ten, she has decided to learn to read. This wish she expressed to Charley Vincent, the son of Mrs. Vincent, the matron, and he at once purchased a First reader. With this he expects to teach Mother Warrick the first rudiments of reading. She has already started, and believes she will attain the desired end.

Should Be Stopped.

The practice of standing teams without hitching them near the street car line, should be stopped. Yesterday afternoon a farmer left his team standing in Washington street, and went into a store. The horses became frightened at a street car, and started to run across the pavement, but the quick work of a bystander prevented disastrous results.

TALK TO THE CARELESS

They Would Not Sleep if They Knew the Truth.

THINK OF YOUR OWN CHILDREN

Of Your Parents and Your Friends—Don't Procrastinate—Refine Your Nature, Your Life—Evangelist Naylor's Strong Sermon Last Night.

The audience which greeted Reverend Naylor last evening was not as large as on former occasions. Even this did not have any effect upon the interest which is aroused in this movement. After a solo by the evangelist, his talk was in part as follows:

"First we have here tonight are the careless, and you have been showing no interest in the great trials of God. Now, you careless people, can't you see your danger? You would not sleep to-night if you could see those truths, ay, until you were saved would you not close your eyes in slumber. My friend, get off that frail craft and come aboard a craft that is safe, the ship of salvation. Once you are upon this staunch ship, the waves of hell would dash against it and not a splinter would break from it. Do not be careless. Do not be an indifferent. Think about the Christ you are casting off. Think about your children, your parents. Because men and women are not saved, it is because they don't think. Look at the drunkard son, why is he in such a condition? Why is his home coming late? Just because he don't think. O, you profligate son, why don't you think. Think about your mother, whether she be living or dead; your father, your sister, your brother, your wife, your children. Let me impress upon your minds that one word—think. The devil doesn't care about your coming to these meetings, about your hearing these songs. All he cares about is that you come back to him after the meeting is out. He wants you to say, 'Not tonight.' How sad it is to hear a man, a woman, say not tonight, and when you say this you don't say it to a preacher. You tell it to Christ. You are rejecting your Savior. Friend, don't procrastinate. Refine your nature, your character, your life. Make it like a new book, clean and bright. Don't smother your convictions about the love God has for you. Don't put off those questions which are able to make your life one of happiness. If each one of us would allow our convictions to lead us, it would be but a short time till we would all be at the feet of Christ. Don't make any excuses, you are not too young, you are not too old. If you are not a Christian, now is your time. God has given you opportunities. Why not make the best of them? Now is your time, not tomorrow. Come now, come now."

At noon today the evangelist held an impressive service at the McNicol pottery. There being no place in the building where services could be held, the street was utilized. His singing and speaking were listened to attentively by all those present. Secretary Charles, of the Young Men's Christian association, spoke to the men in reference to the association. The evangelist then gave out his program.

At 2:30 today he spoke at the Methodist Protestant church, the subject being "The Dispensation of Law, of Grace and of the Holy Ghost." Tomorrow at noon services will be held at Cartwright's, the employees of Brunt & Thompson being invited. Preparations are being made which, after this week, will dispense with the evening services. Commencing next Sunday afternoon, services will be held which will be styled as meetings for the people. A full orchestra will be in attendance, and the services will end promptly at 4 o'clock.

BEGAN WORK TODAY.

Nothing Will Be Done on This Side Until Next Month.

Workmen this morning began to lay rails on the Chester and East Liverpool, and work will be pushed until the line is built from Rock Spring to the bridge. Ties and iron were distributed several months ago, and it will not be long until that end of the line is done. Rails have been laid across the bridge, but work will not be started in the city until April 1. The company do not expect to build a power house at present, but during the summer a plant of sufficient capacity to run the cars and provide illumination for the bridge and grounds will be installed.

Coming Weddings.

At least three weddings are slated for the near future. An employee of the Dresden pottery will marry a Salineville lady, and it is said that one of the stage hands at the Grand will take unto himself a bride. It is also said a Wellsville gentleman will soon marry a Fourth street young lady.

JUNE PRIMARIES.

The County Committee Makes a Radical Change.

Lisbon, March 16.—[Special.]—The county Republicans met here today, and decided to hold the primaries next year in June. The vote was unanimous. The vote of last Saturday was counted.

Judge Young was chairman, and J. N. Hanley secretary. Delegates to the state convention were chosen. The East Liverpool list is as follows: W. L. Smith, Col. J. N. Taylor, J. N. Hanley, W. B. Hill, H. H. Harker. Governor Bushnell was endorsed.

The official count showed the following: Marshall, 2,457; Blake, 3,671; George, 2,701; Reeder, 2,566; Carns, 1,284.

At the meeting of the committee I. B. Cameron was made chairman; Ed A. King, secretary, and J. N. Hanley, treasurer. The executive committee has not been chosen.

The contract for printing tickets was awarded to Walton, of Salem, for $155. The other bids were News Review, $155; Crisis, $165.

NO BUSINESS

Was Transacted By the Base Ball Club Last Night.

The baseball club failed to transact any business at their meeting held last evening, and the propositions they had received for the management of the team, were not considered. They will meet again this week when they hope to reach a definite conclusion.

Mike Lynch has signed a contract to pitch for the Auburn, N. Y., club. Lynch is a good ball player, and the management of the Auburn team is lucky in securing his services.

George Kennedy and Philip McShane have received offers to play with the Wheeling team. They have not decided as yet to accept.

The professional ball players of the city practiced yesterday afternoon at West End park. They will keep it up while the weather is good.

The employees of the Burford pottery, who were the champions among the pottery ball teams last season, think they will be able to retain the honor this season, and are out with a challenge to play the employees of the McNicol pottery.

ASHBAUGH-BEAL.

A Happy Party Attended a Wedding Late This Afternoon.

Charles C. Ashbaugh and Miss Lenore M. Beal were married this afternoon at 5:30 at the residence of the bride's parents, Trentvale street, in the presence of the immediate friends and relatives, Rev. John Lloyd Lee, officiating. The happy couple will leave on the evening train for a western trip, and on their return will go to housekeeping in Eighth street, in a residence which has been furnished by the groom. Mr. Ashbaugh is secretary of the West End Pottery company. He is recognized as one of the city's foremost young business men and is a prominent member of the Phoenix club, while the bride is the daughter of Samuel Beal, and was one of the city's most popular school teachers. The young people have many friends who will join with the News Review in wishing them much joy and happiness.

NO BIG STOCKS.

Importers Are Afraid to Speculate on the Tariff.

The crockery importers are patiently awaiting the enactment of the tariff bill, and contrary to expectation they are not stacking their warehouses with cargoes of ware of foreign manufacture. They say they can't afford it.

Mr. Jacques, of New York, said last night that a few years ago the importers speculated to a large extent on the tariff. They put thousands of dollars in stock while the McKinley bill was pending, and expected to reap a harvest. They were mistaken, as insurance and storage almost ate up their profits. On top of this came a reduction in ware on the other side, and their discomfiture was complete. They will not repeat the experiment, and have, Mr. Jacques says, very little stock on hand.

Doctor Taylor Will Return.

Dr. William J. Taylor, who left this city some time ago to attend the college of physician and surgeons at St. Louis, will graduate at that place tomorrow. He will return to this place about March 30.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Confusion Caused by the New Schedule.

IS WHITE GRANITE PROTECTED?

The Wording of the New Tariff Is Not Understood—Someone Has Made a Mistake In Sending It Out or In Preparing the Bill—No Benefit If the Duty Is Not Changed.

Pottery manufacturers cannot understand the crockery schedule of the Dingley tariff submitted to congress yesterday. They cannot think that 35 per cent on plain ware of the grade made in this city, and 40 per cent on decorated ware, is the limit of duty, yet that is what the schedule says.

The schedule as sent out from Washington is as follows:

Common brown earthenware, 30 per cent; china, decorated, 60 per cent; plain, 55 per cent; earthen articles not specifically provided for, 35 per cent plain; 45 decorated.

When the contents of the bill became known this morning there was consternation. The use of the one word china in the opening of the schedule showed that a very serious error had been made by some one. As it was argued, china only applies to ware that is translucent, and only ware of that grade could legally be listed at the duty named. White granite could not come under it because white granite is not china.

According to the bill there would be no alternative. The importers would pay a high rate on fine ware, and white granite and other grades of earthenware would be admitted under that part of the schedule which says that "earthenware articles not specifically provided for" shall pay 35 per cent, plain, and 40 per cent, decorated. Nothing but this could be gained from the schedule sent out from Washington last night, and the only explanation that could be found in the city was that an error had been made in its transmission. Local manufacturers could not believe that a Republican committee could have intentionally treated the industry so outrageously, and there was surprise on every hand.

"There is no denying the wording of the schedule as it appears in the morning papers," said Homer Laughlin, Sr. "Technically china is translucent ware, and other grades are included in that one portion of the schedule they call unclassified. If the printed schedule is correct the American potter will not be as well protected as the senate would have protected him when that body discussed the Wilson bill. If the schedule is to remain as it is now given out, it would have been much better for us if the committee had never touched the tariff. Very few people know anything of pottery, and reading that china is protected by a duty of 55 and 60 per cent, they will think we have an advantage, which we certainly have not. They would think we had a rate we did not have. For the good of East Liverpool, Trenton and every other place where pottery is manufactured in this country, I hope this printed schedule is a mistake that will be corrected at once."

Other leading manufacturers spoke on the same line, and some expressed the belief that there was some mistake, and the matter would be cleared up in a short time. The schedule was misleading, they believed, and after a short time the matter would be settled to just what the committee intended. One gentleman thought the fine hand of the importers could be seen in the schedule, but there were others who did not see how that could possibly be. "There must be some mistake," was the sum of the many utterances on the subject. The News Review wired an inquiry to Hon. R. W. Taylor this morning, but to the hour of going to press had received no answer.

It's All Right.

At 4:10 this afternoon the News Review received the following from Mr. Taylor:

"The tariff bill just introduced restores McKinley rates on pottery, 55 per cent on white, and 60 on decorated goods."

TWO AMBASSADORS.

John Hay to London and Horace Porter to Paris.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—[Special.]—President McKinley today nominated Gen. Horace Porter to be ambassador to France, and John Hay to be ambassador to England. The nominations were expected. They will be confirmed.

If you are not a Christian, now is your time. God has given you opportunities. Why not make the best of them? Now is your time, not tomorrow. Come now, come now."

At noon today the evangelist held an impressive service at the McNicol pottery. There being no place in the building where services could be held, the street was utilized. His singing and speaking were listened to attentively by all those present. Secretary Charles, of the Young Men's Christian association, spoke to the men in reference to the association. The evangelist then gave out his program.

At 2:30 today he spoke at the Methodist Protestant church, the subject being "The Dispensation of Law, of Grace and of the Holy Ghost." Tomorrow at noon services will be held at Cartwright's, the employees of Brunt & Thompson being invited. Preparations are being made which, after this week, will dispense with the evening services. Commencing next Sunday afternoon, services will be held which will be styled as meetings for the people. A full orchestra will be in attendance, and the services will end promptly at 4 o'clock.

BEGAN WORK TODAY.

Nothing Will Be Done on This Side Until Next Month.

Workmen this morning began to lay rails on the Chester and East Liverpool, and work will be pushed until the line is built from Rock Spring to the bridge. Ties and iron were distributed several months ago, and it will not be long until that end of the line is done. Rails have been laid across the bridge, but work will not be started in the city until April 1. The company do not expect to build a power house at present, but during the summer a plant of sufficient capacity to run the cars and provide illumination for the bridge and grounds will be installed.

Coming Weddings.

At least three weddings are slated for the near future. An employee of the Dresden pottery will marry a Salineville lady, and it is said that one of the stage hands at the Grand will take unto himself a bride. It is also said a Wellsville gentleman will soon marry a Fourth street young lady.

JUNE PRIMARIES.

The County Committee Makes a Radical Change.

LISBON, March 16.—[Special.]—The county Republicans met here today, and decided to hold the primaries next year in June. The vote was unanimous. The vote of last Saturday was counted.

Judge Young was chairman, and J. N. Hanley secretary. Delegates to the state convention were chosen. The East Liverpool list is as follows: W. L. Smith, Col. J. N. Taylor, J. N. Hanley, W. B. Hill, H. H. Harker. Governor Bushnell was endorsed.

The official count showed the following: Marshall, 2,457; Blake, 3,671; George, 2,701; Reeder, 2,566; Carnis, 1,284.

At the meeting of the committee I. B. Cameron was made chairman; Ed A. King, secretary, and J. N. Hanley, treasurer. The executive committee has not been chosen.

The contract for printing tickets was awarded to Walton, of Salem, for $155. The other bids were News Review, $155; Crisis, $165.

NO BUSINESS

Was Transacted By the Base Ball Club Last Night.

The baseball club failed to transact any business at their meeting held last evening, and the propositions they had received for the management of the team, were not considered. They will meet again this week when they hope to reach a definite conclusion.

Mike Lynch has signed a contract to pitch for the Auburn, N. Y., club. Lynch is a good ball player, and the management of the Auburn team is lucky in securing his services.

George Kennedy and Philip McShane have received offers to play with the Wheeling team. They have not decided as yet to accept.

The professional ball players of the city practiced yesterday afternoon at West End park. They will keep it up while the weather is good.

The employees of the Burford pottery, who were the champions among the pottery ball teams last season, think they will be able to retain the honor this season, and are out with a challenge to play the employees of the McNicol pottery.

ASHBAUGH-BEAL.

A Happy Party Attended a Wedding Late This Afternoon.

Charles C. Ashbaugh and Miss Lenore M. Beal were married this afternoon at 5:30 at the residence of the bride's parents, Trentvale street, in the presence of the immediate friends and relatives, Rev. John Lloyd Lee, officiating. The happy couple will leave on the evening train for a western trip, and on their return will go to housekeeping in Eighth street, in a residence which has been furnished by the groom. Mr. Ashbaugh is secretary of the West End Pottery company. He is recognized as one of the city's foremost young business men and is a prominent member of the Phoenix club, while the bride is the daughter of Samuel Beal, and was one of the city's most popular school teachers. The young people have many friends who will join with the News Review in wishing them much joy and happiness.

NO BIG STOCKS.

Importers Are Afraid to Speculate on the Tariff.

The crockery importers are patiently awaiting the enactment of the tariff bill, and contrary to expectation they are not stacking their warehouses with cargoes of ware of foreign manufacture. They say they can't afford it.

Mr. Jacques, of New York, said last night that a few years ago the importers speculated to a large extent on the tariff. They put thousands of dollars in stock while the McKinley bill was pending, and expected to reap a harvest. They were mistaken, as insurance and storage almost ate up their profits. On top of this came a reduction in ware on the other side, and their discomfiture was complete. They will not repeat the experiment, and have, Mr. Jacques says, very little stock on hand.

Doctor Taylor Will Return.

Dr. William J. Taylor, who left this city some time ago to attend the college of physician and surgeons at St. Louis, will graduate at that place tomorrow. He will return to this place about March 20.

Confusion Caused by the New Schedule.

IS WHITE GRANITE PROTECTED?

The Wording of the New Tariff Is Not Understood—Someone Has Made a Mistake In Sending It Out or In Preparing the Bill—No Benefit If the Duty Is Not Changed.

Pottery manufacturers cannot understand the crockery schedule of the Dingley tariff submitted to congress yesterday. They cannot think that 35 per cent on plain ware of the grade made in this city, and 40 per cent on decorated ware, is the limit of duty, yet that is what the schedule says.

The schedule as sent out from Washington is as follows:

Common brown earthenware, 20 per cent; china, decorated, 60 per cent; plain, 55 per cent; earthen articles not specifically provided for, 35 per cent plain; 45 decorated.

When the contents of the bill became known this morning there was consternation. The use of the one word china in the opening of the schedule showed that a very serious error had been made by some one. As it was argued, china only applies to ware that is translucent, and only ware of that grade could legally be listed at the duty named. White granite could not come under it because white granite is not china. According to the bill there would be no alternative. The importers would pay a high rate on fine ware, and white granite and other grades of earthenware would be admitted under that part of the schedule which says that "earthenware articles not specifically provided for" shall pay 35 per cent, plain, and 40 per cent, decorated. Nothing but this could be gained from the schedule sent out from Washington last night, and the only explanation that could be found in the city was that an error had been made in its transmission. Local manufacturers could not believe that a Republican committee could have intentionally treated the industry so outrageously, and there was surprise on every hand.

"There is no denying the wording of the schedule as it appears in the morning papers," said Homer Laughlin, Sr. "Technically china is translucent ware, and other grades are included in that one portion of the schedule they call unclassified. If the printed schedule is correct the American potter will not be as well protected as the senate would have protected him when that body discussed the Wilson bill. If the schedule is to remain as it is now given out, it would have been much better for us if the committee had never touched the tariff. Very few people know anything of pottery, and reading that china is protected by a duty of 55 and 60 per cent, they will think we have an advantage, which we certainly have not. They would think we had a rate we did not have. For the good of East Liverpool, Trenton and every other place where pottery is manufactured in this country, I hope this printed schedule is a mistake that will be corrected at once."

Other leading manufacturers spoke on the same line, and some expressed the belief that there was some mistake, and the matter would be cleared up in a short time. The schedule was misleading, they believed, and after a short time the matter would be settled to say just what the committee intended. One gentleman thought the fine hand of the importers could be seen in the schedule, but there were others who did not see how that could possibly be. "There must be some mistake," was the sum of the many utterances on the subject. The News Review wired an inquiry to Hon. R. W. Taylor this morning, but to the hour of going to press had received no answer.

It's All Right.

At 4:10 this afternoon the News Review received the following from Mr. Taylor:

"The tariff bill just introduced restores McKinley rates on pottery, 55 per cent on white, and 60 on decorated goods."

TWO AMBASSADORS.

John Hay to London and Horace Porter to Paris.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—[Special.]—President McKinley today nominated Gen. Horace Porter to be ambassador to France, and John Hay to be ambassador to England. The nominations were expected. They will be confirmed.

UNION LABEL

CORBETT and Fitzsimmons will settle their differences tomorrow. Let us hope they will settle them for all time.

WHAT a time the county Democracy will have finding a ticket to beat the candidates nominated last Saturday.

DON'T forget the primaries next Saturday. To be sure there are not many contests, but there are enough to make your influence felt if you [but vote] in the right direction.

MR. CLEVELAND is sinking from view, and if no more attention is paid him than he has received these last few days he will to all intents and purposes be as dead as any of his own decoy ducks.

THE Democrats who had a great deal to say a few years ago about their policy "opening up the markets of the world" will please take notice that 20 engines and thousands of tons of steel rails were shipped from this country to Japan within a week after a Republican president was inaugurated.

ONE OF THE SIGNS.

The placing of one order for $1,000,000 worth of steel rails with the Carnegie company is a sign of the times, and good times too. It means that the business of this big country has commenced to move. Its people have realized that bankruptcy and disaster are not now in plain view. There is something more cheering, something better for all the people, and as it is in the iron industry so it is in others. The improvement may not be so pronounced, but it is just as widespread. The rich blood of prosperity is already bounding through the country's veins producing vigor and new life.

HOPE FOR CUBA.

The last news from Spain shows there is hope for Cuba. General Weyler cannot continue the struggle without money, and the treasury of Spain is as empty as the heads of its ministry, as devoid of gold as these statesmen are of sense. Ragged, hungry and ill the Spanish soldiery is unable to cope with the determined patriots who are fighting for home and family. Weyler or some other Spaniard may be able to continue the struggle for a few months, but it cannot last long. The end is near. Spain grows weaker. The friends of Cuba in this country surely have cause for rejoicing.

IMPROVED METHODS AT PRIMARIES.

It is only a matter of time until primary elections will be surrounded by the restrictions necessary to compel an honest vote and a fair count. The adoption of the Australian ballot was a long step toward purifying the ballot, but reform should not end there. Minnesota has seen the necessity of a change, and a law is now pending in the legislature which would hold the primaries of all parties on the same day, and place them in a great measure under the election law. It would mean that all danger of the vote going wrong would have passed, and regularly appointed officials would compel fairness where its existence was in doubt. In St. Louis the primaries will this spring be conducted under state laws, and heavy penalties will be imposed for illegal voting. It is a wise provision, and an example which other states might follow with much profit.

ANOTHER SNAG FOR STUART.

Fitzsimmons Refuses to Fight Without Getting Photograph Profits.

CARSON CITY, Nev., March 16.—Dan Stuart is up against another snag in the person of Martin Julian, who has demanded one-third of the receipts that may come to Dan Stuart from exhibiting the photographs of the fight. At the time of the signing of the articles of agreement Julian asked for a share of the money that would accrue from this, and he was told by Stuart that if any bids were made for the right to take pictures of the fight Julian would be given a chance to be in on the receipts. No bids have been made, however, as Stuart has been intending to take the photographs with a machine which belongs to him for the most part.

Julian told Stuart he wanted the receipts from the exhibition of photographs to be divided into three equal parts, one to go to Stuart, one to Fitzsimmons and Julian and the remaining third to Corbett. Julian said that if his demand was not granted he would refuse to fight before the camera, although he was willing to allow Fitzsimmons to fight for the purse if the camera was taken from the arena. The pictures are considered by Stuart his one chance of getting back some of the money he has advanced for the fight in the last three years, and he is much worried over the demand made by Julian. Stuart probably will decide the matter today.

"Books in the Running Brooks."

There is no knowing where the Bodleian library at Oxford will leave off. At present it is literally overflowing with the literature, it is not the learning, of the age. It has, like the library of the British museum, to be supplied with a copy of every work published, and naturally the strain put upon its limited resources has been too great for it.

A long time ago the library itself could hold no more books, and the Radcliffe camera was called into the service of the librarian. That got full, and then the basement of the Sheldonian theater was obtained. This is also full now, and the basement of the Ashmolean museum is now a home for what would otherwise be homeless books.

At the present rate it is not improbable that the library will spread and spread until it completely overflows and swamps the whole university town itself. That, however, is not likely to be just yet, in spite of the activity of the "lady novelist."—Pearson's Weekly.

A War in Rubber Expected.

BOSTON, March 16.—Jobbers all over the east have been notified of a reduction of from 12 to 15 per cent on different grades of goods manufactured by the Boston Rubber Shoe company. A similar announcement is looked for at once from the United States Rubber company, and this indicates a coming war within the rubber trust.

A Fatal Wreck in Kansas.

KANSAS CITY, March 16.—A Missouri Pacific passenger train has been wrecked at Wolf Creek, Kan., by running into a bunch of horses. The engineer and fireman were killed, express messenger, baggage man and conductor badly injured and three passengers hurt, one seriously.

Hunter Sure of the Place.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 16.—The legislators will not ballot until March 23 for senator. Senator Hissam says he will support Dr. Hunter, in view of the letters written and published statements. This removes all doubt of Hunter's election.

Scovel to Leave Havana.

HAVANA, March 16.—Sylvester Scovel, correspondent of the New York World will sail for New York on Saturday next and that later in the month his family will also sail for the United States and remain out of Cuba during the hot season.

Confessed to Forging $15,000.

PADUCAH, Ky., March 16.—M. G. Cope, ex-president of the First National bank of Paducah is missing and has forged $15,000 of negotiable paper. He made a confession, resigned and left town. His bond is good.

The Monitor Puritan Safe.

NEW YORK, March 16.—The United States monitor Puritan, which met with an accident to her engines off Cape Hatteras over a week ago, has arrived at the Brooklyn navy yard in tow of the cruiser Columbia.

Three Negroes Lynched.

OCALA, Fla., March 16.—Three negroes, who murdered John Barfield and John R. Turner at Juliette, have been lynched.

REVIEWED BY DINGLEY.

He Gives Points on the New Tariff Measure.

HOW IT WILL PRODUCE REVENUE.

On the basis of Last Year's Importations It Would Increase the Government's Income About $112,000,000—Delay Beyond May 1 Would Decrease It.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Chairman Dingley of the ways and means committee, in response to a request that he furnish a synopsis of the new tariff bill presented by him in the house, makes the following statement:

"The bill has two purposes, namely, to raise additional revenue and to encourage the industries of the United States.

"On the basis of the importations for the last fiscal year the bill would increase the revenue about $112,000,000, divided among the several schedules roughly as follows:

A, chemicals, $3,500,000; B, crockery and glassware, $4,000,000; C, metals, $4,000,000; D, wood, $1,750,000; E, sugar, $21,750,000; F, tobacco, $7,000,000; G, agricultural, $6,300,000; H, liquors, $1,800,000; I, cottons, $1,700,000; J, jute, linen and hemp, $7,800,000; K, wool, $17,500,000; L, manufactures of wool, $27,000,000; M, silks, $1,500,000; N, pulp and paper, $58,000; O, sundries, $6,200,000.

"This estimate is on the supposition that the imports of each class of goods would be the same next fiscal year. But as the imports of wool were three times as great as those of woolen goods in 1893, the committee assume that the excessive importation would be largely reduced by the proposed bill, although the fact that our domestic production of wool has diminished 8,000,000 pounds since 1893 will necessitate the importation of much more wool now than in the latter year. Assuming that the imports of wool will fall off, at least one-third from those of 1893, on account of anticipatory imports to avoid duties we place the increased revenue from this source at $11,000,000. Anticipating also that the imports of woolens will fall off nearly 50 per cent from this source under the proposed rates at about $14,000,000. From sugar we estimate $20,000,000 additional revenue.

"Anticipating a considerable falling off of imports of Havana tobacco, because of the revolution in Cuba, we reduce the estimates of additional revenue to be derived from the tobacco schedule to $4,000,000. The remaining schedules would afford a revenue of about $89,500,000 on the basis of the imports of 1893, but as there would probably be diminished imports at some points, although the gradual restoration of business activity would offset this by increasing the consumption of imported luxuries, we reduce the estimate on these to $81,000,000. These would aggregate an additional revenue of $80,000,000 the first year.

"A further reduction of $5,000,000 or $10,000,000 for contingencies would leave $75,000,000 to $70,000,000 as the probable increased revenue from this bill the first year, which would undoubtedly rise to $100,000,000 the second year.

"These estimates are below rather than above the probable result, unless a considerable delay in the enactment of the bill should greatly enlarge the opportunity for imports of articles on which duties are to be raised—particularly wool and woolens—for speculative purposes. Undoubtedly any delay beyond the first of May in placing the bill on the statute book would result in a large loss of revenue.

"The increase of revenue is secured by transferring wool, lumber, crude opium, argols, paintings and statuary, straw ornaments, straw matting, burles and various other articles from the free list of the present law to the dutiable list; by increasing the duty on woolens to compensate the manufacturer for the duty placed on wool; by raising the duty on sugar about three-fourths of a cent per pound in order to encourage the production of sugar in this country, which, it is believed, can be done, and thus give our farmers a new crop which we now import mainly from abroad; by increasing the duty on agricultural products affected by Canadian competition, and on fine cotton goods, some advanced manufactures of iron and steel, manufactures of jute, flax and hemp in order to encourage these and other industries here, and especially by increasing duties on such luxuries as liquors, tobacco, silks and laces, etc.

"As a rule, the rates of duties proposed are between the rates of the tariff of 1890 and the tariff of 1894, such reduction of rates from the former law, preservation of the protective principle being made feasible by changed conditions.

"The iron and steel schedule is changed very little from that schedule in the tariff of 1894, the change being entirely in the more advanced articles. The same is true of the cotton schedule. In the agricultural, wool and glass and earthenware schedules alone are the duties of the act of 1890 fully restored as a rule, and in a few cases increased, with the view of amply protecting and encouraging our farming interests at every possible point. While the duty on clothing wool is larger in proportion to the foreign value than on manufactured articles, yet it is thought desirable for the public interest and for our agriculture that we should produce this prime necessity for ourselves. The duty on carpet wools, as well as upon many other articles, is imposed mainly for revenue. The irritation caused by the use of a few wools heretofore classed as carpet wools being used for clothing purposes, has been remedied by transferring such wools to the clothing wool classes, but the duty on clothing wool has been reduced to the rate of the act of 1890.

"In framing this new tariff the aim has been to make the duties specific, or at least partly specific, as far as possible to protect the revenue and also to protect our own industries. This has been done in response to the wishes of the better class of importers, as well as of the administrators of the law and of our own producers. The very general suspension of specific duties, even where they are only the equivalent of existing ad valorem will of itself increase the revenue and strengthen the protection afforded to our industries.

"The reciprocity provisions of the act of 1890 have not only been fully restored, but this policy has been extended by adding to sugar, tea, coffee and hides as articles on which to make reciprocal agreements, such articles as champagne, brandy, wines, artificial and natural mineral waters, chic, argols and silk laces. In adding these articles the reciprocity provision is strengthened greatly by providing for a reduction of duties to countries giving us similar concessions.

"The bill, as a whole, has the unanimous support of the Republican members of the ways and means committee, and it is hoped, receive the support, not only of Republicans, but of others who believe that revenue should be at least equal to expenditures, with a small surplus added, and who are patriotic enough to entertain the conviction that in adjusting duties to secure such revenue it is a wise policy to encourage home production and manufactures, and thus provide employment, at good wages, for the wage earners of our people, upon whose purchasing power depends the market for our products."

WILL SERVE FOUR YEARS.

The Administration Will Not Remove the Postmasters Immediately.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Postmaster General Gary has made the definite announcement that the administration, after deliberation, has decided to adhere to the four-year tenure of office policy for all postmasters. He stated that, except in a few cases where removal for cause was required on account of delinquency, incompetency or other instances of unsatisfactory conduct or administration of the office, all postmasters, fourth-class as well as those of presidential appointment, would be allowed to serve out a term of four years.

This official statement of policy, one of the most important so far determined upon by the administration, has been awaited with great interest by the entire corps of postmasters, and by the patronage of the 70,475 postoffices throughout the country.

SLOW ON APPOINTMENTS.

The President Refuses to Act Without Careful Investigation.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The president has been compelled reluctantly to enforce the rules against the visitors, who crowd the White House.

Most of those admitted had papers to present or verbal representations to make in support of some particular candidates, but generally they preferred not to state just whom they were endorsing. The president had adopted the policy of making haste very slowly in acting upon recommendations for changes in office and he has felt it necessary to inform many of his callers that he would be obliged to take time in every case before acting.

FAILED AT PROPRATION BILLS.

They Are Again Introduced in the House For Passage.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The four appropriation bills which failed to receive President Cleveland's signature have been reintroduced in the house. The Indian bill was introduced by Mr. Sherman, who was chairman of the Indian committee in the last house, the sundry civil and deficiency bills by Mr. Cannon, chairman of the appropriations committee, and the agricultural by Mr. Wadsworth.

All are unchanged, except the general deficiency bill, which has been altered by striking out almost the entire list of senate amendments.

New Ways and Means Committee.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Speaker Reed has appointed the following ways and means committee: Dingley, Maine; Payne, New York; Dalzell, Pennsylvania; Hopkins, Illinois; Grovernor, Ohio; Russell, Connecticut; Dooliver, Iowa; Steele, Indiana; Johnson, North Dakota; Evans, Kentucky; Tawney, Minnesota; Republicans; Bailey, Texas; McMillin, Tennessee; Wheeler, Alabama; McLaurin, South Carolina; Robertson, Louisiana; and Swanson, Virginia, Democrats. The house adjourned until Thursday.

Can Tax Corporation Franchises.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The attention of the United States supreme court was given largely to the power of states to tax the franchises of corporations such as express, telegraph and railroad companies. Two Kentucky cases involving the constitutionality of the state law of 1892, one affecting the Henderson bridge and the other the Adams Express company, were both decided favorably to the state.

The Senate Session.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The senate began its work in extra session with 37 senators present and with galleries packed to their full limit. The new senator from Kansas, Mr. Harris, was seated and the credentials of Mr. Corbett as senator from Oregon were referred to the committee on privileges and elections.

Condition of the Treasury.

MORE REVENUE NEEDED.

The President's Reason For Convening Congress.

TEXT OF HIS BRIEF MESSAGE.

Congress Should Provide a Means of Paying the Public Debt, Pay Pensions and Various Obligations Without Issuing Bonds—The Deficit.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—President McKinley's message to congress is as follows:

To the Congress of the United States:

Regretting the necessity which has required me to call you together, I feel that your assembling in extraordinary session is indispensable because of the condition in which we find the revenues of the government. It is conceded that its current expenditures are greater than its receipts and that such condition has existed for more than three years. With unlimited means at our command, we are presenting the remarkable spectacle of increasing our public debt by borrowing money to meet the ordinary outlays incident upon even an economical and prudent administration of the government. An examination of the subject discloses this fact in every detail and leads inevitably to the conclusion that the condition of the revenues which allows it is unjustifiable and should be corrected.

We find by the reports of the secretary of the treasury that the revenues for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1892, from all sources, were $428,808,263.22, and the expenditures for all purposes were $419,366,866.66, leaving an excess of receipts over expenditures of $9,441,396.56. During that fiscal year $10,570,467.98 were paid upon the public debt, which had been reduced since March 1, 1890, $229,076,890, and the annual interest charged decreased $11,681,576.60.

The receipts of the government from all sources during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1893, amounted to $461,716,561.94, and its expenditures were $459,374,887.65, showing an excess of receipts over expenditures of $2,341,674.29.

Since that time the receipts of no fiscal year, and with but few exceptions of no month of any fiscal year, have exceeded the expenditures. The receipts of the government, from all sources, during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1894, were $473,892,492.89, and its expenditures were $476,725.97, leaving a deficit, the first since the resumption of specie payments, of $2,833,483.08. Notwithstanding there was a decrease of $16,769,128.78 in the ordinary expenses of the government, as compared with the previous fiscal year, its income was still not sufficient to provide for its daily necessities, and the gold reserve in the treasury for the redemption of greenbacks was drawn upon to the extent of $43,175,428.18, leaving a deficit of $2,833,483.08.

In February, 1894, $50,000,000 in bonds were issued, and in November following $20,000,000 more, and the expenditures were $493,175,428.18, showing a deficit of $43,175,428.18. The sum of $117,171,785 was realized by the sale of these bonds, but the reserve was steadily decreased until on Feb. 8, 1895, a third sale of $92,315,100 in bonds for $65,116,234 was announced in congress.

The receipts of the government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1895, were $493,175,428.18, and the expenditures were $493,175,428.18, showing a deficit of $43,175,428.18. A further loan of $100,000,000 was negotiated by the government in February, 1895, the sale netting $111,166,246, and swelling the aggregate of bonds issued within three years to $282,315,100.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, MARCH 16.

CORRETT and Fitzsimmons will settle their differences tomorrow. Let us hope they will settle them for all time.

WHAT a time the county Democracy will have finding a ticket to beat the candidates nominated last Saturday.

DON'T forget the primaries next Saturday. To be sure there are not many contests, but there are enough to make your influence felt if you [but vote] in the right direction.

MR. CLEVELAND is sinking from view, and if no more attention is paid him than he has received these last few days he will to all intents and purposes be as dead as any of his own decoy ducks.

THE Democrats who had a great deal to say a few years ago about their policy "opening up the markets of the world" will please take notice that 20 engines and thousands of tons of steel rails were shipped from this country to Japan within a week after a Republican president was inaugurated.

ONE OF THE SIGNS.

The placing of one order for $1,000,000 worth of steel rails with the Carnegie company is a sign of the times, and good times too. It means that the business of this big country has commenced to move. Its people have realized that bankruptcy and disaster are not now in plain view. There is something more cheering, something better for all the people, and as it is in the iron industry so it is in others. The improvement may not be so pronounced, but it is just as widespread. The rich blood of prosperity is already bounding through the country's veins producing vigor and new life.

HOPE FOR CUBA.

The last news from Spain shows there is hope for Cuba. General Weyler cannot continue the struggle without money, and the treasury of Spain is as empty as the heads of its ministry, as devoid of gold as these seamen are of sense. Ragged, hungry and ill the Spanish soldiery is unable to cope with the determined patriots who are fighting for home and family. Weyler or some other Spaniard may be able to continue the struggle for a few months, but it cannot last long. The end is near. Spain grows weaker. The friends of Cuba in this country surely have cause for rejoicing.

IMPROVED METHODS AT PRIMARIES.

It is only a matter of time until primary elections will be surrounded by the restrictions necessary to compel an honest vote and a fair count. The adoption of the Australian ballot was a long step toward purifying the ballot, but reform should not end there. Minnesota has seen the necessity of a change, and a law is now pending in the legislature which would hold the primaries of all parties on the same day, and place them in a great measure under the election law. It would mean that all danger of the vote going wrong would have passed, and regularly appointed officials would compel fairness where its existence was in doubt. In St. Louis the primaries will this spring be conducted under state laws, and heavy penalties will be imposed for illegal voting. It is a wise provision, and an example which other states might follow with much profit.

ANOTHER SNAG FOR STUART.

Fitzsimmons Refuses to Fight Without Getting Photograph Profits.

CARSON CITY, Nev., March 16.—Dan Stuart is up against another snag in the person of Martin Julian, who has demanded one-third of the receipts that may come to Dan Stuart from exhibiting the photographs of the fight. At the time of the signing of the articles of agreement Julian asked for a share of the money that would accrue from this, and he was told by Stuart that if any bids were made for the right to take pictures of the fight Julian would be given a chance to be in on the receipts. No bids have been made, however, as Stuart has been intending to take the photographs with a machine which belongs to him for the most part.

Julian told Stuart he wanted the receipts from the exhibition of photographs to be divided into three equal parts, one to Stuart, one to Fitzsimmons and Julian and the remaining third to Corbett. Julian said that if his demand was not granted he would refuse to fight before the camera, although he was willing to allow Fitzsimmons to fight for the purse if the camera was taken from the arena. The pictures are considered by Stuart his one chance of getting back some of the money he has advanced for the fight in the last three years, and he is much worried over the demand made by Julian. Stuart probably will decide the matter today.

"Books in the Running Brooks"

There is no knowing where the Bodleian library at Oxford will leave off. At present it is literally overflowing with the literature, if not the learning, of the age. It has like the library of the British museum, to be supplied with a copy of every work published, and naturally the strain put upon its limited resources has been too great for it.

A long time ago the library itself could hold no more books, and the Radcliffe camera was called into the service of the librarian. That got full, and then the basement of the Sheldonian theater was obtained. This is also full now, and the basement of the Ashmolean museum is now a home for what would otherwise be homeless books.

At the present rate it is not improbable that the library will spread and spread until it completely overflows and swamps the whole university town itself. That, however, is not likely to be just yet, in spite of the activity of the "lady novelist."—Pearson's Weekly.

REVIEWED BY DINGLEY.

He Gives Points on the New

Tariff Measure.

HOW IT WILL PRODUCE REVENUE.

On the basis of Last Year's Importations

It Would Increase the Government's

Income About $112,000,000—Delay

Beyond May 1 Would Decrease It.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Chairman Dingley of the ways and means committee, in response to a request that he furnish a synopsis of the new tariff bill presented by him in the house, makes the following statement:

"The bill has two purposes, namely to raise additional revenue and to encourage the industries of the United States.

"On the basis of the importations for the last fiscal year the bill would increase the revenue about $112,000,000, divided among the several schedules roughly as follows:

A, chemicals, $35,000,000; B, crockery and glassware, $4,000,000; C, metals, $4,000,000; D, wood, $1,750,000; E, sugar, $21,750,000; F, tobacco, $7,000,000; G, agricultural, $6,300,000; H, liquors, $1,800,000; I, cottons, $1,700,000; J, jute, linen and hemp, $7,800,000; K, wool, $17,500,000; L, manufactures of wool, $27,000,000; M, silks, $1,500,000; N, pulp and paper, $58,000; O, sundries, $6,200,000.

"This estimate is on the supposition that the imports of each class of goods would be the same next fiscal year as in the fiscal year ended last June. But as the imports of wool were three times as great and those of woolen goods more than twice as great in pounds as in 1893, the committee assume that the excessive importation would be largely reduced by the proposed bill, although the fact that our domestic production of wool has diminished 8,000,000 pounds since 1893 will necessitate the importation of much more wool now than in the latter year. Assuming that the imports of each class of goods would be the same next fiscal year as in 1893, the committee assume that the excessive importation would be largely reduced by the proposed bill, although the fact that our domestic production of wool has diminished 8,000,000 pounds since 1893 will necessitate the importation of much more wool now than in the latter year.

"Anticipating a considerable falling off of imports of Havana tobacco, because of the revolution in Cuba, we reduce the estimates of additional revenue to be derived from the tobacco schedule to $4,000,000. The remaining schedules would afford a revenue of about $19,500,000 on the basis of the imports of 1893, but as there would probably be diminished imports at some points, although the gradual reduction of business activity would offset this by increasing the consumption of imported luxuries, we reduce the estimate on these to $31,000,000. This would aggregate an additional revenue of $80,000,000 the first year.

"A further reduction of $5,000,000 or $10,000,000 for contingencies would leave $70,000,000 to $75,000,000 as the probable increased revenue from this bill the first year, which would undoubtedly rise to $100,000,000 the second year.

"These estimates are below rather than above the probable result, unless a considerable delay in the enactment of the bill should greatly enlarge the opportunity for imports of articles on which duties are to be raised—particularly wool and woolens—for speculative purposes. Undoubtedly any delay beyond the first of May in placing the bill on the statute book would result in a large loss of revenue.

"This increase of revenue is secured by transferring wool, lumber, crude opium, argols, paintings and statuary, straw ornaments, straw matting, burlaps and various other articles from the free list of the present law to the dutiable list by increasing the duty on woolens to compensate the manufacturer for the duty placed on wool; by raising the duty on sugar about three-fourths of a cent per pound in order to encourage the production of sugar in this country, which, it is believed, can be done, and thus give our farmers a new crop which we now import mainly from abroad; by increasing the duty on agricultural products as acted by Canadian competition, and on fine cotton goods, some advanced manufactures of iron and steel, manufactures of jute, flax and hemp in order to encourage these and other industries here, and especially, by increasing duties on such luxuries as liquors, tobacco, silks and laces, etc.

"As a rule, the rates of duties proposed in the bill are in line with the tariff of 1890 and the tariff of 1894, such reduction of rates from the former law, preservation of the protective principle being made feasible by changed conditions.

"The iron and steel schedule is changed very little from that schedule in the tariff of 1894, the change being entirely in the more advanced articles. The same is true of the cotton schedule. In the agricultural, wool and glass and earthenware schedules alone are the duties of the act of 1890 fully restored as a rule, and in a few cases increased, with the view of amply protecting and encouraging our farming interests at every possible point. While the duty on clothing wool is larger in proportion to the foreign value than on manufactured articles, yet it is thought desirable for the public interest and for our agriculture that we should produce this prime necessity for ourselves. The duty on carpet wools, as well as upon many other articles, is imposed mainly for revenue. The irritation caused by the use of a few wools heretofore classed as carpet wools being used for clothing purposes, has been remedied by transferring such wools to the clothing wool classes, but the duty on clothing wool has been reduced to the rate of the act of 1890.

"In framing this new tariff the aim has been to make the duties specific, or at least partly specific, as far as possible to protect the revenue and also to protect our own industries. This has been done in response to the wishes of the better class of importers, as well as of the administrators of the law and of our own producers. The very general substitution of specific duties, even where they are only the equivalent of existing ad valorem will of itself increase the revenue and strengthen the protection afforded to our industries.

"The reciprocity provisions of the act of 1890 have not only been fully restored, but this policy has been extended by adding to sugar, tea, coffee and hides as articles on which to make reciprocal agreements, such articles as champagne, brandy, wines, artificial and natural mineral waters, chicle, argols and silk laces. In adding these articles the reciprocity provision is strengthened greatly by providing for a reduction of duties to countries giving us similar concessions.

"The bill, as a whole, has the unanimous support of the Republican members of the ways and means committee, and will, it is hoped, receive the support not only of Republicans, but of others who believe that revenue should be at least equal to expenditures, with a small surplus added, and who are patriotic enough to entertain the conviction that in adjusting duties to secure such revenue it is a wise policy to encourage home production and manufactures, and thus provide employment, at good wages, for the wage earners of our people, upon whose purchasing power depends the market for our products."

WILL SERVE FOUR YEARS.

The Administration Will Not Remove the Postmasters Immediately.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Postmaster General Gary has made the definite announcement that the administration, after deliberation, has decided to adhere to the four-year tenure of office policy for all postmasters. He stated that, except in a few cases where removal for cause was required on account of delinquency, incompetency or other instances of unsatisfactory conduct or administration of the office, all postmasters, fourth-class as well as those of presidential appointment, would be allowed to serve out a term of four years.

This official statement of policy, one of the most important so far determined upon by the administration, has been awaited with great interest by the entire corps of postmasters and by the patrons of the 70,675 postoffices throughout the country.

SLOW ON APPOINTMENTS.

The President Refuses to Act Without Careful Investigation.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The president has been compelled reluctantly to enforce the rules against the visitors, who crowd the White House.

Most of those admitted had papers to present or verbal representations to make in support of some particular candidate, but generally they preferred not to state just whom they were endorsing. The president had adopted the policy of making haste very slowly in acting upon recommendations for changes in office and he has felt it necessary to inform many of his callers that he would be obliged to take time in every case before acting.

FAILED PROPRATION BILLS.

They Are Again Introduced in the House For Passage.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The four appropriation bills which failed to receive President Cleveland's signature have been reintroduced in the house. The Indian bill was introduced by Mr. Sherman, who was chairman of the Indian committee in the last house, the sundry civil and deficiency bills by Mr. Cannon, chairman of the appropriations committee, and the agricultural bill by Mr. Wadsworth.

All are unchanged, except the general deficiency bill, which has been altered by striking out almost the entire list of senate amendments.

New Ways and Means Committee.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Speaker Reed has appointed the following ways and means committee: Dingley, Maine; Payne, New York; Dalzell, Pennsylvania; Hopkins, Illinois; Grovernor, Ohio; Russell, Connecticut; Dooliver, Iowa; Steele, Indiana; Johnson, North Dakota; Evans, Kentucky; Tawney, Minnesota; Republicans; Bailey, Texas; McMillin, Tennessee; Wheeler, Alabama; McLaurin, South Carolina; Robertson, Louisiana; and Swanson, Virginia. The house adjourned until Thursday.

Can Tax Corporation Franchises.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The attention of the United States supreme court was given largely to the power of states to tax the franchises of corporations such as express, telegraph and railroad companies. Two Kentucky cases involving the constitutionality of the state law of 1892, the one affecting Henderson bridge and the other the Adams Express company, were both decided favorably to the state.

The Senate Session.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The senate began its work in extra session with 37 senators present and with galleries packed to their full limit. The new senator from Kansas, Mr. Harris, was seated and the credentials of Mr. Corbett as senator from Oregon were reported to the committee on privileges and elections.

Condition of the Treasury.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The statement of the condition of the treasury shows: Available cash balance, $212,626,662; gold reserve, $151,118,321.

MORE REVENUE NEEDED.

The President's Reason For

Convening Congress.

TEXT OF HIS BRIEF MESSAGE.

Congress Should Provide a Means of Paying the Public Debt, Pay Pensions

and Various Obligations Without Issuing

Bonds—The Deficit.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—President McKinley's message to congress is as follows:

To the Congress of the United States:

Regretting the necessity which has required me to call you together, I feel that your assembling in this extraordinary session is indispensable because of the condition in which we find the revenues of the government. It is conceded that its current expenditures are greater than its receipts and that such condition has existed for more than three years. With unlimited means at our command, we are presenting the remarkable spectacle of increasing our public debt by borrowing money to meet the ordinary outlays incident upon even an economical and prudent administration of the government. An examination of the subject discloses this fact in every detail and leads inevitably to the conclusion that the condition of the revenues which allows it is unjustifiable and should be corrected.

We find by the reports of the secretary of the treasury that the revenues for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1894, from all sources, were $425,868,262.23, and the expenditures for all purposes were $443,363,806.36, leaving an excess of receipts over expenditures of $9,914,456.66. During that fiscal year $10,570,467.08 were paid upon the public debt, which had been reduced since March 1, 1890, $229,075,380, and the annual interest charged decreased $11,681,576.60.

The receipts of the government from all sources during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1893, amounted to $461,716,161.91, and its expenditures to $459,374,887.65, showing an excess of receipts over expenditures of $2,341,274.26.

Since that time the receipts of no fiscal year, and with but few exceptions of no month of any fiscal year, have exceeded the expenditures. The receipts of the government, from all sources, during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1894, were $425,868,262.23, and its expenditures $443,363,806.36, leaving a deficit, the first since the resumption of specie payments, of $9,914,456.66. Notwithstanding there was a decrease of $16,769,128.78 in the ordinary expenses of the government, as compared with the previous fiscal year, its income was still not sufficient to provide for its daily necessities, and the gold reserve in the treasury for the redemption of greenbacks was drawn upon to meet them. But this did not suffice, and the government then resorted to loans to replenish the reserve.

In February, 1894, $50,000,000 in bonds were issued, and, in November following, a second issue of $50,000,000 was deemed necessary. The sum of $117,171,785 was realized by the sale of these bonds, but the reserve was steadily decreased until on Feb. 8, 1895, a third sale of $52,315,400 in bonds for $55,116,244 was announced in congress.

The receipts of the government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1894, were $425,868,262.23, and the expenditures were $443,363,806.36, showing a deficit of $17,495,544.13. A further loan of $100,000,000 was negotiated by the government in February, 1895, the sale netting $111,169,346, and swelling the aggregate of bonds issued within three years to $262,315,400.

For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1896, the revenues of the government from all sources amounted to $461,716,161.91, and its expenditures were $443,678,654.48, or an excess of expenditures over receipts of $25,203,243.70. In other words, the total receipts for the three fiscal years ending June 30, 1893, 1894, and 1895, were $1,397,817,229.46 to meet the total expenditures.

Nor has this condition since improved. For the first half of the present fiscal year the receipts of the government, exclusive of postal revenues, were $157,307,603.76, and its expenditures, exclusive of postal service, $156,410,000.22, or an excess of expenditures over receipts of $897,002.54. In January of this year the receipts, exclusive of postal revenues, were $24,316,064.06, and the expenditures, exclusive of postal service, $20,208,389.29, a deficit of $5,052,355.24 for the month. In February of this year, the receipts, exclusive of postal revenues, were $24,007,367, and its expenditures, exclusive of postal service, $28,795,056.66, a deficit of $4,787,689.29, or a total deficiency of $18,061,880.44 for three years and eight months ending March 1, 1895. Not only are we without a surplus in the treasury, but with an increase in the public debt there has been a corresponding increase in the annual interest charge from $22,908,883.18 in 1892, the lowest of any year since 1862 to $41,367,197.60 in 1896, or an increase of $18,458,314.40.

It may be urged that even if the revenues of the government had been sufficient to meet all its ordinary expenses during the past three years, the gold reserve would still have been insufficient to meet the demands upon it, and that bonds would necessarily have been issued for its replenishment. Be this as it may, it is clearly manifest, without denying or affirming the correctness of such a conclusion, that the debt would have been decreased in at least the amount of the gold reserve, and business confidence immeasurably strengthened throughout the country.

Congress should promptly correct the existing condition. Ample revenue must be supplied, not only for the ordinary expenses of the government, but for the prompt payment of liberal pensions and the liquidation of the principal and interest of the public debt, in raising revenue to meet such a measure, we are forced to products as to preserve the home market, so far as possible, to our own producers, to revive and encourage agriculture, to increase our domestic and foreign commerce, to aid and develop mining and building, and to render to labor in every field of useful occupation the liberal wages and adequate rewards to which skill and industry are justly entitled.

The necessity of the passage of a tariff law which shall provide ample revenue, need not be further urged. The imperative demand of the hour is the prompt enactment of such a measure, and I earnestly recommend that congress shall make every endeavor.

Before other business is transacted, let us first provide sufficient revenue to faithfully administer the government without the contracting of further debt, or the continued disturbance of our finances.

WILLIAM MCKINLEY.

BREAK IN A LEVEE.

Mississippi Running Through at a Terrific Rate.

WHOLE COUNTY NEARLY COVERED.

Many People Believed to Have Been Drowned in That Section of Arkansas. Steamers at the Work of Rescue—Relief Evidently Needed.

MEMPHIS, March 16.—The river has broken all records, the gauge registering 36.4 feet. The rise continues at Cairo, New Orleans and all other intermediate points. News of the first serious break in the levee system has reached this city. It occurred near Modesto, Ark., 50 miles above Memphis. The river is raging through the levee at a terrific rate, having the tremendous fall of 15 feet to give it force and send it to deal death and destruction in the lowlands of Mississippi county, Ark.

There will be no attempt to stop the break, as the St. Francis levee board has no boats or workmen on the scene and the people are busied about saving their lives and stock. The break is the more terrible because loss of life will surely occur from it. Indeed the most serious of those who know of the conditions there do not dare to hope that all the people in the lowlands have escaped from the flood.

The levee which gave way is in front of Mississippi county, and it is thought the water will almost, if not entirely, cover this county. The steamer City of Osceola passed down a short time after the break occurred and rescued a number of the unfortunate people. For miles and miles to the west of Memphis not a home is habitable. On the overflowed land, where the current is so strong, it is not difficult for the people to escape with most of their household trunks on skiffs, dugouts or rafts, and the surface of the water in every direction is dotted with these little craft.

At Marion, Ark., the available steamers fit for such duty have been employed rescuing the flood victims and some of the sights that have been met are truly pathetic. Down on the levee are great stacks of goods of all kinds, the household property of fugitive negroes or poor white folks, and there are great numbers of live stock, horses and cattle, that have been saved, while still greater numbers have been lost before relief could come.

When the first relief boat, the C. B. Bryan, got to Marion there was a great rush on the part of the people, white and black, to get aboard with their property. Negroes had been standing in the water with their stock for hours waiting for this moment. There is not in the city standing room for a dozen people that is not under water, except on the railroad.

Up and down the river very few signs of life are manifested on any of the plantations, as there has been no means of saving the stock, it is certain that nearly all has perished. Nearly all the refugees that are brought to this city are totally without means. Many of them have been sleeping on the levee, while others found temporary accommodations at the homes of friends in the city.

A hundred citizens of Memphis got together and devised means to send relief boats to the flooded district and to furnish support to the flood victims when they are brought to this city from the surrounding country.

A relief fund of $1,000 was immediately subscribed by citizens present.

GREECE AWAITS THE BLOCKADE.

It Will Likely Cause an Outbreak on the Frontier.

ATHENS, March 16.—The government is determined to maintain its opposition and await a pacific blockade.

It is generally believed that the enforcement of the blockade will be a signal for conflict on the frontier.

St. Petersburg, March 16.—All the admirals except the French and Italian commanders, have been ordered to immediately blockade the principal Greek ports, especially the Piræus (the port of Athens), Syra and Vozos.

An ultimatum will forthwith be addressed to Greece by the admirals of the fleet.

Rome, March 16.—It is semi-officially stated here that all the foreign admirals have received orders to blockade the island of Crete. But, it is added, the blockade of Greece would only occur if the Crete blockade should prove inadequate. The Greek fleet is expected to leave Crete, otherwise it will be escorted outside Crete waters.

SCARED OVER TARIFF BILL.

The Heavy Withdrawals From Bonded Warehouses Continue.

New York, March 16.—When, on Saturday last, the duties on withdrawals of imports from bonded warehouses reached the remarkable total of $1,488,900, it was believed that the panic over the new tariff bill on Wednesday had reached its culmination.

Monday's aggregate showed, however, that the panic had only really begun on Saturday. When the doors of the customhouse closed at 5 p. m. Cashier Northrup had collected exactly $2,667,979.51.

ANOTHER AMERICAN RELEASED.

All of Them to Be Freed by General Weyler This Week.

HAVANA, March 16.—Oscar Gespedes, the American, who landed in Cuba with Trujillo's filibustering expedition last June and was captured and imprisoned in San Severino castle, Matanzas, has been released upon condition that he leave the island.

It is understood that nearly all the other American citizens now in confinement will be released during the present week.

House Adjourned to Thursday.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The Fifty-first house of representative is organized for the work before it. Although the proceedings were perfunctory the session was a brilliant one. The house adjourned until Thursday.

A NOVEL ELECTION WAGER.

R. F. Woodward Riding From New York to 'Frisco on a Donkey.

MARION, O., March 16.—R. F. Pitcher Woodward, who is under promise to ride from Brooklyn to San Francisco on a donkey's back, by reason of William Jennings Bryan's defeat, was compelled to spend a day and night in this city in order to let his donkey have a needed rest.

Mr. Woodward regrets that he was so foolish as to make such a bet, but prefers to make the trip if the donkey holds out, to paying the $5,000 he wagered on Bryan's election. He thinks the donkey with good care will hold out, and safely land him at their destination by next November, the time set for the journey's end.

RAN AWAY OR DROWNED.

A Boy Missing From Marietta—His Father Thinks Him Alive.

MARIETTA, O., March 16.—The other night Frank, the 17-year-old son of Louis Middlesworts of this county, was supposed to have fallen off the tow of the Iron Age and been drowned. Diligent search was made for his body without success.

His father apparently suspected that the boy was not dead at all, but played a shrewd game to get away from home without provoking pursuit, telegraphed down the river to have the boat searched.

Brice Will Live at Lima.

LIMA, O., March 16.—Ex-Senator Calvin S. Brice is now having the plans prepared for a $100,000 residence, which he will build at once at the west end of Market street. The Brice family, it is stated, will occupy the house several months this fall. This would seem to indicate that Mr. Brice will make a fight for the regular term in the senate this year.

To Get Rid of the Carp.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., March 16.—Complaint has been made to the state fish warden that the German carp in the Mahoning river are exterminating the bass and other fish by destroying the spawn. The river will be seined, the carp removed and the river restocked with fine fish.

Killed by a Car.

TOLEDO, March 16.—Woolsey H. Sawtelle, one of the oldest traveling men of this city, has been almost instantly killed by a street car as he was crossing the swinging bridge from the Ohio Central depot.

Old Persons Pass Away.

MARION, O., March 16.—James Harrison, aged 77 years, and S. D. Collins, aged 76 years, both old residents and pioneer settlers, are dead.

QUAY REFORM BILLS.

Three More Measures Introduced in the Pennsylvania State Senate.

HARRISBURG, March 16.—Senator Gobin of Lebanon has introduced three more Quay reform bills. They prohibit city officials and corporations from interfering in politics, prevent political assessments and compel every man to pay his own taxes. The act protecting the free exercise of the right of suffrage makes it unlawful for officers of the police or paid fire department, or any other employee of any city, to unduly influence or attempt to influence any elector or voter, in the exercise of his right of suffrage, at any primary election of any political party, or any general or special election hereafter to be held for any federal, state, county, city, municipal or school district office.

NOT LONG UNDER TURKISH RULE.

Sir George Curzon's Statement Regarding the Cretans.

LONDON, March 16.—John Dillon, chairman of the Irish parliamentary party, in the house of commons asked by what right the admirals of the foreign fleets in Crete waters had expelled the Greek subjects from Crete.

The parliamentary secretary for the foreign office, Mr. Curzon, in reply said that the admirals were acting under the instructions of the powers and that the latter had assumed the responsibility of maintaining peace and order.

Replying to further questions on the same subject, Mr. Curzon said it would be made clear to the Cretans that under the autonomous government which it was proposed to establish they would not remain under Turkish rule.

PREACHING AT 80 YEARS.

Rev. Dr. Brownson of Washington, Pa., Celebrates His Birthday.

WASHINGTON, Pa., March 16.—The eightieth birthday of Rev. James I. Brownson, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church, was celebrated by a reception in the church parlor, where the minister and his wife received the congratulations of the congregation and many other friends. Dr. Brownson was born at Mercerburg, Franklin county, Pa., March 14, 1817. He came to Washington in 1879 and was installed pastor of the First church.

His record of 48 years without a change of pulpit is rare in the history of the Presbyterian church. Dr. Brownson is in excellent health, but for the past five years has been greatly troubled by failing eyesight.

THE SUFFERING MINERS.

Resolution to Investigate Passed by the Pennsylvania Legislature.

HARRISBURG, March 16.—The senate concurred in the McWhinney resolution to send out a legislative committee to investigate the condition of the miners in the Pittsburgh district. They amended it to include a similar inquiry in the anthracite regions.

An Expedition to Cuba.

BALTIMORE, March 16.—Captain Butman of the steamer Bowden, from Jamaica, reports having passed the steamer Laurada, on Wednesday last, off Watlings island, about 200 miles from the Cuban coast. Her name had been painted out and she was steaming slowly in the direction of the Cuban coast and a large number of men could be seen upon her decks by the Bowden's crew.

Unknown Men Drowned.

VANCOUVER, Ky., March 16.—A horrible accident happened to several unknown men two miles below here. They were on a family boat and were run over by a sawboat and all were drowned. There is no means of identification.

BREAK IN A LEVEE.

Mississippi Running Through at a Terrific Rate.

WHOLE COUNTY NEARLY COVERED.

Many People Believed to Have Been Drowned in That Section of Arkansas.

MEMPHIS, March 16.—The river has broken all records, the gauge registering 36.4 feet.

The rise continues at the Cairo, New Orleans and all other intermediate points.

News of the first serious break in the levee system has reached this city.

It occurred near Modesto, Ark., 50 miles above Memphis.

The river is raging through the levee at a terrific rate, having the tremendous fall of 15 feet to give it force and send it to deal death and destruction in the lowlands of Mississippi county, Ark.

There will be no attempt to stop the break, as the St. Francis levee board has no boats or workmen on the scene.

As the people are busied about saving their lives and stock, the break is the more terrible because loss of life will surely occur from it.

Indeed the most sanguine of those who know of the conditions there do not dare to hope that all the people in the lowlands have escaped from the flood.

The levee which gave way is in front of Mississippi county, and it is thought the water will almost, if not entirely, cover this county.

The steamer City of Decatur passed down a short time after the break occurred and rescued a number of the unfortunate people.

For miles and miles to the west of Memphis no home is habitable. On the overflowed land, where the current is not strong, it is not difficult for the people to escape with most of their household truck on skiffs, dugouts or rafts, and the surface of the water in every direction is dotted with these little craft.

At Marion, Ark., the available steamers fit for such duty have been employed rescuing the flood victims and some of the sights that have been met are truly pathetic.

Down on the levee are stored great stacks of goods of all kinds, the household property of fugitive negroes or poor white folks, and there are great numbers of live stock, horses and cattle, that have been saved, while still greater numbers have been lost before relief could come.

When the first relief boat, the C. B. Ryan, got to Marion there was a great rush on the part of the people, white and black, to get aboard with their property.

Negroes had been standing in the water with their stock for hours waiting for this moment. There is not in the city standing room for a dozen people that is not under water, except on the railroad.

Up and down the river very few signs of life are manifested on any of the plantations, as there has been no means of saving the stock, it is certain that nearly all has perished. Nearly all the refugees that are brought to this city are totally without means.

Many of them have been sleeping on the levee, while others found temporary accommodations at the homes of friends in the city.

A hundred citizens of Memphis got together and devised means to send relief boats to the overflowed district and to furnish support to the flood victims when they are brought to this city from the surrounding country.

A relief fund of $1,000 was immediately subscribed by citizens present.

GRECE AWAITS THE BLOCKADE.

It Will Likely Cause an Outbreak on the Frontier.

ATHENS, March 16.—The government is determined to maintain its opposition and await a pacific blockade.

It is generally believed that the enforcement of the blockade will be a signal for conflict on the frontier.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 16.—All the admirals except the French and Italian commanders, have been ordered to immediately blockade the principal Greek ports, especially the Piræus (the port of Athens), Syra and Voz.

An ultimatum will forthwith be addressed to Greece by the admirals of the foreign fleets.

ROME, March 16.—It is semi-officially stated here that all the foreign admirals have received orders to blockade the island of Crete. But, it is added, the blockade of Greece would only occur if the Crete blockade should prove inadequate. The Greek fleet is expected to leave Crete, otherwise it will be escorted outside Crete waters.

SCARED OVER TARIFF BILL.

The Heavy Withdrawals From Bonded Warehouses Continue.

NEW YORK, March 16.—When, on Saturday last, the duties on withdrawals of imports from bonded warehouses reached the remarkable total of $1,458,700, it was believed that the panic over the new tariff bill on Wednesday had reached its culmination.

Monday's aggregate showed, however, that the panic had only really begun on Saturday. When the doors of the customhouse closed at 5 p. m., Cashier Northrup had collected exactly $2,667,979.51.

ANOTHER AMERICAN RELEASED.

All of Them to Be Freed by General Weyler This Week.

HAVANA, March 16.—Oscar Gespedes, the American, who landed in Cuba with Jimeno's filibustering expedition last June and was captured and imprisoned in San Severino castle, Matanzas, has been released upon condition that he leave the island.

It is understood that nearly all the other American citizens now in confinement will be released during the present week.

House Adjourned to Thursday.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The Fifty-fourth house of representative is organized for the work before it. Although the proceedings were perfunctory the day was a brilliant one. The house adjourned until Thursday.

A NOVEL ELECTION WAGER.

R. P. Woodward Riding From New York to 'Frisco on a Donkey.

MARION, O., March 16.—R. Pitcher Woodward, who is under promise to ride from Brooklyn to San Francisco on a donkey's back, by reason of William Jennings Bryan's defeat, was compelled to spend a day and night in this city in order to let his donkey have a needed rest.

Mr. Woodward regrets that he was so foolish as to make such a bet, but prefers to make the trip if the donkey holds out, to paying the $5,000 he wagered on Bryan's election. He thinks the donkey with good care will hold out, and safely land him at their destination by next November, the time set for the journey's end.

RAN AWAY OR DROWNED.

A Boy Missing From Marietta—His Father Thinks Him Alive.

MARIETTA, O., March 16.—The other night Frank, the 17-year-old son of Louis Middewarts of this county, was supposed to have fallen off the tow of the Iron Age and been drowned. Diligent search was made for his body without success.

His father apparently suspected that the boy was not drowned at all, but played a shrewd game to get away from home without provoking pursuit, telegraphed down the river to have the boat searched.

Brice Will Live at Lima.

LIMA, O., March 16.—Ex-Senator Calvin S. Brice is now having the plans prepared for a $100,000 residence, which he will build at once at the west end of Market street. The Brice family, it is stated, will occupy the house several months this fall. This would seem to indicate that Mr. Brice will make a fight for the regular term in the senate this year.

To Get Rid of the Carp.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., March 16.—Complaint has been made to the state fish warden that the German carp in the Mahoning river are exterminating the bass and other fish by destroying the spawn. The river will be seined, the carp removed and the river restocked with fine fish.

Killed by a Car.

TOLEDO, March 16.—Woolsey H. Sawtelle, one of the oldest traveling men of this city, has been almost instantly killed by a street car as he was crossing the swinging bridge from the Ohio Central depot.

Old Persons Pass Away.

MARION, O., March 16.—James Harrison, aged 77 years, and S. D. Collins, aged 76 years, both old residents and pioneer settlers, are dead.

QUAY REFORM BILLS.

Three More Measures Introduced in the Pennsylvania State Senate.

HARRISBURG, March 16.—Senator Gobin of Lebanon has introduced three more Quay reform bills. They prohibit city officials and corporations from interfering in politics, prevent political assessments and compel every man to pay his own taxes. The act protecting the free exercise of the right of suffrage makes it unlawful for officers of the police or paid fire department, or any other employees of any city, to unduly influence or attempt to influence any elector or voter, in the exercise of his right of suffrage, at any primary election of any political party, or any general or special election hereafter to be held for any federal, state, county, city, municipal or school district office.

NOT LONG UNDER TURKISH RULE.

Sir George Curzon's Statement Regarding the Cretans.

LONDON, March 16.—John Dillon, chairman of the Irish parliamentary party, in the house of commons asked by what right the admirals of the foreign fleets in Crete waters had expelled the Greek subjects from Crete.

The parliamentary secretary for the foreign office, Mr. Curzon, in reply said that the admirals were acting under the instructions of the powers and that the latter had assumed the responsibility of maintaining peace and order.

Replying to further questions on the same subject, Mr. Curzon said it would be made clear to the Cretans that under the autonomous government which it was proposed to establish they would not remain under Turkish rule.

PREACHING AT 80 YEARS.

Rev. Dr. Brownson of Washington, Pa., Celebrates His Birthday.

WASHINGTON, Pa., March 16.—The eightieth birthday of Rev. James I. Brownson, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church, was celebrated by a reception in the church parlor, where the minister and his wife received the congratulations of the congregation and many other friends. Dr. Brownson was born at Mercersburg, Franklin county, Pa., March 14, 1817. He came to Washington in 1879 and was installed pastor of the First church.

His record of 48 years without a change of pulpit is rare in the history of the Presbyterian church. Dr. Brownson is in excellent health, but for the past five years has been greatly troubled by failing eyesight.

THE SUFFERING MINERS.

Resolution to Investigate Passed by the Pennsylvania Legislature.

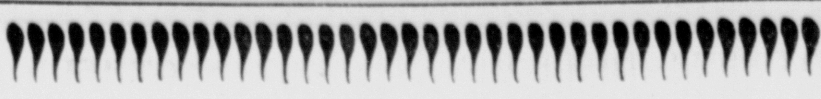

HARRISBURG, March 16.—The senate concurred in the McWhinney resolution to send out a legislative committee to investigate the condition of the miners in the Pittsburgh district. They amended it to include a similar inquiry in the anthracite regions.

An Expedition to Cuba.

BALTIMORE, March 16.—Captain Butman of the steamer Bowden, from Jamaica, reports having passed the steamship Laura, on Wednesday last, off Watlings island, about 200 miles from the Cuban coast. Her name had been painted out and she was steaming slowly in the direction of the Cuban coast and a large number of men could be seen upon her decks by the Bowden's crew.

Unknown Men Drowned.

VANCEBURG, Ky., March 16.—A horrible accident happened to several unknown men two miles below here. They were on a family boat and were run over by a towboat and all were drowned. There is no means of identification.

HARD ON THE ZETTING

It Is Not a Paper of General Circulation

EXCEPT AS THE COURT DECIDES

Simms Only Received One-third of That Bill For County Printing—Local Liquor Dealers Got a Dose of Justice—Wellsville Election Cases Killed.

Lisbon, March 16.—(Special.)—William Fisher has taken judgment by confession against J. B. Hanlon for $779.05, and obtained orders of sale for land in East Liverpool.

Frank and Louise Rigot plead guilty before Judge Robinson this morning to each of the charges against them of furnishing liquor to minors.

Rigot answered five charges, and he got $100 and costs on the first, and on each of the others $50. Mrs. Rigot was fined $30 and costs on each of three charges.

William McLaughlin was to have been tried today but the case was continued because of death in the family of Attorney Anderson, of Youngstown. Judge Robinson this morning rendered his opinion in the case of J. H. Simms against the commissioners. He gave to Simms $994.50. The case will be recalled as being brought to recover judgment for $2,000 which Simms claimed for legal advertising in the Zeitung, on the ground the sheet was of general circulation. Judge Robinson held that the paper was clearly not one of general circulation, but was one of general circulation among the German speaking people, and the judgment rendered was for that part of the advertising which was printed by virtue of some contract between Simms and the county officials. It is generally understood the case will drop with this decision, and not go to the higher court.

A motion to quash the indictments against the Wellsville election judges was sustained, and the matter will come before the next grand jury. It was based on a trivial defect in the wording of the indictment which, though not invalidating the charge gave a loophole of escape.

John Lotyl and Mary Underwood, F. R. Davidson and Bertha Wollam were granted marriage licenses.

A STORY

Was Sent From East Liverpool to New York.

The New York Journal of last Sunday contains a long story about a fight over the sarcophagus of General Grant's tomb which occurred in some Illinois town a week ago. The contractor is described as holding an angry mob of unpaid workmen at bay while the sarcophagus was loaded on a flat car and shipped to New York. This would be interesting in itself, but it becomes doubly interesting when it is known that the story was sent from East Liverpool.

THE NEW CHURCH

Will Be Built On the Scott Property.

The official board of the Christian congregation discussed plans for the new church at the residence of Rev. O. S. Reed last night. It was decided that A. W. Scott should begin work on the plans at once. They will be drawn on the lines given in this paper last week. There was some talk of purchasing 30 feet of the adjacent land, but upon this there was no decision.

MISS JANE COOMBS

Will Appear In Bleak House at the Grand.

Miss Jane Coombs, who appears at the Grand tonight in "Bleak House," has been heard before in this city, and so many people remember her that a good crowd will greet her. The play at once commends itself, and Miss Coombs is supported by a superb company. "Bleak House" is something the play going public should not miss.

The Clippers Broke.

Reverend Hosick, of Hookstown, Pa., for the past few weeks has been driving a queer looking animal. When the warm weather came he decided to clip his horse. When they were half through their work the clippers broke, and as another pair could not be procured in the neighborhood, the reverend gentleman was compelled to drive an animal with but one side shorn until a pair of clippers could be secured.

Married Last Night.

Mr. Curtis E. Werner and Miss Floretta Poland were married last evening at the residence of the bride's mother in Bank street. Reverend Reed officiated.

Extensive Preparations.

Extensive preparations are being made by the Christian Endeavor society, of the First Presbyterian church, to make the social of this evening one of especial interest.

Selling His Effects.

A public sale was held today at the old Chain farm. J. E. Goddard, a dairyman, was selling his effects.

THE ELECTION.

The Republican Central Committee Transacted Business.

The Republican central committee held a session last evening at city hall, and put out the following city tickets:

Water works trustee, C. G. Stevenson, J. W. Devore; cemetery trustee, W. C. Frazier; constable, H. B. Quinn, Henry Thorn; councilmen, First ward, W. C. Marrow, Henry Cooper; Second ward, H. Michaels, W. G. Stewart; Third ward, J. A. Johnson, J. Goetz; Fourth ward, Charles Stark, W. S. Denslow, Emmett McKinsey; Fifth ward, S. S. Minor, Assessor—First ward, John McConley, Sam Brubaker, O. C. Sinclair; Second ward, D. Davidson, E. J. Thompson, Joe Davis; Third ward, Will McDonald; Fourth ward, M. H. Williamson; Fifth ward, James Pelly, J. W. Saltzman.

There will be one councilman and one assessor to elect in each ward, except in the Third ward, where there will be two councilmen to elect.

Twenty-four names were presented to the committee as candidates to be chosen, and there will be three to elect from each ward, making a total of 15.

The central committee ordered 15,000 tickets printed, 10,000 for the regular city ticket and 5,000 for the school board election.

The following are the candidates for school board: F. K. Hutchison, John Lythe and P. H. White.

Voting in the election will take place at the same places as on last Saturday unless otherwise arranged.

The committee will meet again Thursday evening at Charles McGregor's office in Main street.

The Election Case.

The case of the election officers of the Fourth ward comes up in the county court at Lisbon today, and a number of witnesses went out to attend court. From good authority it is learned that the case will be dismissed on the ground that Mr. Manist should have voted in the Second instead of the Fourth ward.

The News of Wellsville.

The car shops are again put on five hours per day.

The Grand Army held its regular meeting last evening.

Mrs. S. P. Berry, of Main street, is very sick again.

Mr. James Griffith has returned home after a two weeks' visit among friends.

The Asbury Brotherhood, of the Methodist Episcopal church, will give a reception to their lady friends at city hall next Thursday evening. Both floors of the city hall will be utilized on the occasion, and tables will be spread for at least one thousand guests.

We are now prepared to furnish the trade with pure hygeia ice and hygeia redistilled water. It is absolutely pure, and recommended by home physicians for purity and health.

Tickets for the Washington and Jefferson concert will be placed on sale Thursday of next week March 25 at Will Reed's drug store. Seats 50 and 75 cents.

Elijah W. Hill, whose cards read "E. W. Hill," is the candidate for justice of the peace. Mr. Hill's name will so appear on the ballot next Saturday.

WATCHING THEIR MEN

The Pennsylvania Company Have Many Detectives.

EMPLOYEES DO NOT LIKE IT

A System of Espionage Has Been Inaugurated Which Does Not Please the Average Cleveland and Pittsburg Man. Trouble on Other Divisions.

The following comes from Cleveland. It will be read with interest:

"Employees of the Cleveland and Pittsburg division of the Pennsylvania are condemning the company. The services of a large force of detectives have been secured, it is claimed, to watch everybody who is engaged on that road. The employees are agitated, and threats are frequently heard. The detectives have made themselves obnoxious on the Fort Wayne and other branches of the Pennsylvania system."

"It is declared that not one employee of the system west of Pittsburg feels secure. Even the section men are being watched. The action of the company has engendered a deal of ill feeling among all railroad men. Several declared yesterday that they would continue to act as they had been, and would resign with a great deal of pleasure if called upon to do so. The detectives devote much of their time to ticket agents and trainmen."

Expensive Benevolence.

There is a venerable and benevolent judge in Paris who at the moment of passing sentence on a prisoner consults his assessors on each side of him as to the proper penalty to be inflicted. "What ought we to give this rascal, brother?" he says, bending over to the assessor on the right.

"I should say three years."

"What is your opinion, brother?" to the assessor on the left.

"I should give him about four years."

The judge, with benevolence: "Prisoner, not desiring to give you a long and severe term of imprisonment, as I should have done if left to myself, I have consulted my learned brethren and shall take their advice. Seven years."

—London Telegraph.

Poisonous Serpents.

All poisonous serpents have movable fangs, which are found in the upper jaw, and when not in use close up like the blade of a penknife. The fang is provided with a duct leading to the poison sac, and the virus is ejected through this duct by pressure. At the base of every poison fang there are numerous germs of others, and the fang broken or lost is replaced in a few weeks by the growth of another.

"That Tired Feeling"

Overcomes us when inferior preparations are recommended by unscrupulous dealers as "just as good as Foley's Honey and Tar Cough Syrup," when we know the unequalled merits of this great medicine.

For sale at Bulger's and Reed's drug stores.

Notice to the Public.

Organized labor is invited to hear address of D. J. Smith, Trades and Labor hall, Wednesday evening. Business meeting called promptly at 7 o'clock.

J. J. Weisend, President.

To Consumptives.

As an honest remedy Foley's Honey and Tar does not hold out false hopes in advanced stages, but truthfully claims to give comfort and relief in the very worst cases, and in the early stages to effect a cure.

For sale at Bulger's and Reed's drug stores.

W. and J. Glee club, April 2.

MOTHERS

recovering from the illness attending childbirth, or who suffer from the effects of disorders, derangements and displacements of the womanly organs, will find relief and a permanent cure in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Taken during pregnancy, the "Prescription"

MAKES CHILDBIRTH EASY

by preparing the system for parturition, thus assisting Nature and shortening "labor." The painful ordeal of childbirth is robbed of its terrors, and the dangers thereof greatly lessened, to both mother and child. The period of confinement is also greatly shortened, the mother strengthened and built up, and an abundant secretion of nourishment for the child promoted. If

THE MARRIED WOMAN be delicate, run-down, or overworked, it worries her husband as well as herself. This is the proper time to build up her strength and cure those weaknesses, or ailments, which are the cause of her trouble. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription dispels aches and pains, melancholy and nervousness, brings refreshing sleep and makes a new woman of her.

Mrs. ABRAM LYON, of Lawrence, Jefferson Co., N. Y., writes: "I had been suffering from ulceration and falling of the womb, for several years, or since the birth of my youngest child. I consulted all the physicians around here, and they gave me many prescriptions, but said there was no help for me."

At last, almost discouraged, I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and took five bottles. It is three years since I have not had any return of the trouble. I feel very grateful, and in fact, owe you my life. For I do not think I should have been alive now if I had not taken your medicine."

LOCAL EVIDENCE.

A Report from the D. E. McNicholl Pottery.

If this report were published in East Liverpool, about a resident of Liverpool, England, we would expect our readers to harbor some suspicion about it, at least we are safe in saying that any public utterance made in East Liverpool, Ohio, by a resident of Liverpool, England, would not be half so interesting as a sentence or two from Mr. H. Thompson, of 306 Fourth street, presser at the D. E. McNicholl Pottery and a resident of East Liverpool for the past forty-five years. Mr. Thompson, in 61, joined Co. I, of 62nd Penn. Infantry at Pittsburg and served his country well for three years, enduring all the hardships and trials of camp life. When such a man as he comes out flat footed and endorses the claims of an article in which he has no interest there must be something more than ordinary merit behind it. It requires no reasoning or argument to prove this. The facts are plain and to the point. He says: "During my campaign experience between the years of 61 and 64 I contracted a weakness of the kidneys which has bothered me more or less ever since, and recently very severely. I had a constant aching pain across the small of my back and was subject to attacks of muscular rheumatism, especially in damp or changeable weather. I have frequently been so bad that I could scarcely get up when down, and in fact could hardly get around at all. I have tried many remedies in an endeavor to get rid of my trouble, but found nothing that seemed suited to my case until I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. and W. Pharmacy. They filled the bill exactly, giving me almost immediate relief and warding off the last attack. I am continuing their use firmly believing they will radically cure me. I do not hesitate to give Doan's Kidney Pills my earnest endorsement, believing they will be a great source of benefit to those troubled as I was."

HARD ON THE ZETTING

EXCEPT AS THE COURT DECIDES

Simms Only Received One-third of That Bill For County Printing—Local Liquor Dealers Got a Dose of Justice—Wellsville Election Cases Killed.

Lisbon, March 16.—[Special.]—William Fisher has taken judgment by confession against J. B. Hanlon for $779.05, and obtained orders of sale for land in East Liverpool.

Frank and Louise Rigot plead guilty before Judge Robinson this morning to each of the charges against them of furnishing liquor to minors.

Rigot answered five charges, and he got $100 and costs on the first, and on each of the others $50. Mrs. Rigot was fined $30 and costs on each of three charges.

William McLaughlin was to have been tried today but the case was continued because of death in the family of Attorney Anderson, of Youngstown.

Judge Robinson this morning rendered his opinion in the case of J. H. Simms against the commissioners. He gave to Simms $994.50. The case will be recalled as being brought to recover judgment for $2,000 which Simms claimed for legal advertising in the Zeitung, on the ground the sheet was of general circulation. Judge Robinson held that the paper was clearly not one of general circulation, but was one of general circulation among the German speaking people, and the judgment rendered was for that part of the advertising which was printed by virtue of some contract between Simms and the county officials. It is generally understood the case will drop with this decision, and not go to the higher court.

A motion to quash the indictments against the Wellsville election judges was sustained, and the matter will come before the next grand jury. It was based on a trivial defect in the wording of the indictment which, though not invalidating the charge gave a loophole of escape.

John Lotyl and Mary Underwood, F. R. Davidson and Bertha Wollam were granted marriage licenses.

A STORY

Was Sent From East Liverpool to New York.

The New York Journal of last Sunday contains a long story about a fight over the sarcophagus of General Grant's tomb which occurred in some Illinois town a week ago. The contractor is described as holding an angry mob of unpaid workmen at bay while the sarcophagus was loaded on a flat car and shipped to New York. This would be interesting in itself, but it becomes doubly interesting when it is known that the story was sent from East Liverpool.

THE NEW CHURCH

Will Be Built On the Scott Property.

The official board of the Christian congregation discussed plans for the new church at the residence of Rev. O. S. Reed last night. It was decided that A. W. Scott should begin work on the plans at once. They will be drawn on the lines given in this paper last week. There was some talk of purchasing 30 feet of the adjacent land, but upon this there was no decision.

MISS JANE COOMBS

Will Appear In Bleak House at the Grand.

Miss Jane Coombs, who appears at the Grand tonight in "Bleak House," has been heard before in this city, and so many people remember her that a good crowd will greet her. The play at once commends itself, and Miss Coombs is supported by a superb company. "Bleak House" is something the play going public should not miss.

The Clippers Broke.

Reverend Hosick, of Hookstown, Pa., for the past few weeks has been driving a queer looking animal. When the warm weather came he decided to clip his horse. When they were half through their work the clippers broke, and as another pair could not be procured in the neighborhood, the reverend gentleman was compelled to drive an animal with but one side shorn until a pair of clippers could be secured.

Married Last Night.

Mr. Curtis E. Werner and Miss Floretta Poland were married last evening at the residence of the bride's mother in Bank street. Reverend Reed officiated.

Extensive Preparations.

Extensive preparations are being made by the Christian Endeavor society, of the First Presbyterian church, to make the social of this evening one of especial interest.

Selling His Effects.

A public sale was held today at the old Chain farm. J. E. Goddard, a dairyman, was selling his effects.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

THE ELECTION.

The Republican Central Committee Transacted Business.

The Republican central committee held a session last evening at city hall, and put out the following city tickets:

Water works trustee, C. G. Stevenson, J. W. Devore; cemetery trustee, W. C. Frazier; constable, H. B. Quinn, Henry Thorn; councilmen, First ward, W. C. Marrow, Henry Cooper; Second ward, H. Michaels, W. G. Stewart; Third ward, J. A. Johnson, J. Goetz; Fourth ward, Charles Stark, W. S. Denslow, Emmett McKinsey; Fifth ward, S. S. Minor, Assessor—First ward, John McConley, Sam Brubaker, O. C. Sinclair; Second ward, D. Davidson, E. J. Thompson, Joe Davis; Third ward, Will McDonald; Fourth ward, M. H. Williamson; Fifth ward, James Pelly, J. W. Saltzman.

There will be one councilman and one assessor to elect in each ward, except in the Third ward, where there will be two councilmen to elect.

Twenty-four names were presented to the committee as candidates to be chosen, and there will be three to elect from each ward, making a total of 15.

The central committee ordered 15,000 tickets printed, 10,000 for the regular city ticket and 5,000 for the school board election.

The following are the candidates for school board: F. K. Hutchison, John Lythe and P. H. White.

Voting in the election will take place at the same places as on last Saturday unless otherwise arranged.

The committee will meet again Thursday evening at Charles McGregor's office in Main street.

The Election Case.

The case of the election officers of the Fourth ward comes up in the county court at Lisbon today, and a number of witnesses went out to attend court. From good authority it is learned that the case will be dismissed on the ground that Mr. Manist should have voted in the Second instead of the Fourth ward.

The News of Wellsville.

The car shops are again put on five hours per day.

The Grand Army held its regular meeting last evening.

Mrs. S. P. Berry, of Main street, is very sick again.

Mr. James Griffith has returned home after a two weeks' visit among friends. The Ashbury Brotherhood, of the Methodist Episcopal church, will give a reception to their lady friends at city hall next Thursday evening. Both floors of the city hall will be utilized on the occasion, and tables will be spread for at least one thousand guests.

We are now prepared to furnish the trade with pure hygeia ice and hygeia distilled water. It is absolutely pure, and recommended by home physicians for purity and health.

EAST LIVERPOOL ICE COMPANY.

Buying and Selling.

A. W. King and John Holmes left today for Kentucky, where they will purchase some fast horses.

Mark Bough this morning sold his fast horse Billy B. to Pittsburg parties.

Sold For a Song.

A local music firm placed on sale early this week a new edition of ten cent music, and it is surprising the way the public took hold of it.

Waist Patterns Cut to Order.

A New House.

George C. Potter broke ground today for a new dwelling house on Avondale street.

Tickets for the Washington and Jefferson concert will be placed on sale Thursday of next week March 25 at Will Reed's drug store. Seats 50 and 75 cents.

Elijah W. Hill, whose cards read "E. W. Hill," is the candidate for justice of the peace. Mr. Hill's name will so appear on the ballot next Saturday.

WATCHING THEIR MEN

The Pennsylvania Company Have Many Detectives.

EMPLOYEES DO NOT LIKE IT

A System of Espionage Has Been Inaugurated Which Does Not Please the Average Cleveland and Pittsburg Man. Trouble on Other Divisions.

The following comes from Cleveland. It will be read with interest:

"Employees of the Cleveland and Pittsburg division of the Pennsylvania are condemning the company. The services of a large force of detectives have been secured, it is claimed, to watch everybody who is engaged on that road. The employees are agitated, and threats are frequently heard. The detectives have made themselves obnoxious on the Fort Wayne and other branches of the Pennsylvania system."

"It is declared that not one employee of the system west of Pittsburg feels secure. Even the section men are being watched. The action of the company has engendered a deal of ill feeling among all railroad men. Several declared yesterday that they would continue to act as they had been, and would resign with a great deal of pleasure if called upon to do so. The detectives devote much of their time to ticket agents and trainmen."

Expensive Benevolence.

There is a venerable and benevolent judge in Paris who at the moment of passing sentence on a prisoner consults his assessors on each side of him as to the proper penalty to be inflicted. "What ought we to give this rascal, brother?" he says, bending over to the assessor on the right.

"I should say three years."

"What is your opinion, brother?" to the assessor on the left.

"I should give him about four years."

The judge, with benevolence: "Prisoner, not desiring to give you a long and severe term of imprisonment, as I should have done if left to myself, I have consulted my learned brethren and shall take their advice. Seven years."

—London Telegraph.

Poisonous Serpents.

All poisonous serpents have movable fangs, which are found in the upper jaw, and when not in use close up like the blade of a penknife. The fang is provided with a duct leading to the poison sac, and the virus is ejected through this duct by pressure. At the base of every poison fang there are numerous germs of others, and the fang broken or lost is replaced in a few weeks by the growth of another.

"That Tired Feeling"

Overcomes us when inferior preparations are recommended by unscrupulous dealers as "just as good as Foley's Honey and Tar Cough Syrup," when we know the unequalled merits of this great medicine.

For sale at Bulger's and Reed's drug stores.

Notice to the Public.

Organized labor is invited to hear address of D. J. Smith, Trades and Labor hall, Wednesday evening. Business meeting called promptly at 7 o'clock. J. J. Weisend, President.

To Consumptives.

As an honest remedy Foley's Honey and Tar does not hold out false hopes in advanced stages, but truthfully claims to give comfort and relief in the very worst cases, and in the early stages to effect a cure.

For sale at Bulger's and Reed's drug stores.

W. and J. Glee club, April 2.
